

AASR

The Australian Association for the Study of Religion

The Australian Association for the Study of Religion
Annual Conference 2016
Saturday 26 November, 2016.

Hosted by the Institute for Religion, Politics, and Society, Australian Catholic University, Melbourne

The Australian Association for the Study of Religion (AASR) is an interdisciplinary organisation whose mission is to foster the development of high quality scholarship about religion in Australia and the Asia-Pacific Region.

Keynote Speakers

Bryan Turner,
City University of New York

Angela Coco,
Southern Cross University

Jose Casanova,
Georgetown University

The Institute for Religion, Politics, and Society (IRPS) is pleased to host the 2016 annual meeting of the Australian Association for the Study of Religion. IRPS is an interdisciplinary research hub dedicated to advancing the study of religion in Australia. Engaging with eminent scholars from around the globe, IRPS examines the interplay between religion and social structures including economy, politics, and law.

Call for Papers: Papers are invited on all themes in the academic study of religion from a variety of disciplinary perspectives and approaches. Submissions from Honours and PhD students are strongly encouraged. Please email abstracts no longer than 300 words to: Nicholas.Morieson@myacu.edu.au no later than 15 August, 2016. For more information, go to: <http://www.aasr.org.au/>

Institute for Religion, Politics & Society

