

Annual Conference
4-6 July 2003

Multi-Faith Centre, Griffith University

CALL FOR PAPERS

Proposals for papers are invited on topics related to the study of religions or to religious education. Thirty minutes will be allocated to each paper including questions and discussion. Papers addressing multi-faith dialogue and the teaching of Study of Religions in Secondary Schools will be particularly welcome. Persons interested in offering a paper at this conference should submit an abstract, of 100 to 150 words, to the Conference Convenor by 14th April. Academic Papers on the Study of Religions will be grouped in strands. Strands will be determined after submission of abstracts. It is hoped that strands will include

- Teaching Study of Religions in Secondary Schools
- Multi-Faith Dialogue

Acceptances of conference papers will be confirmed by 30 April.

Should you require early confirmation of acceptance of your conference paper (for funding purposes), contact conference convenor.
